

Confronting Neglect and Emotional Abuse (Equipping practitioners to achieve better outcomes for children)

Tuesday 10th January 2012 – Denewood Centre
Denewood Crescent, Nottingham NG8 3DH (City and County applicants)

or

Wednesday 22nd February 2012 – South Forest Leisure Complex
Clipstone Rd, Mansfield NG21 9JF (County applicants)

The Purpose of the Events

The number of children subject to protection plans under the categories of Neglect and/or Emotional Abuse within Nottingham City and Nottinghamshire are high. The focus of these inter-active events will be on early identification and prevention and developing practitioner confidence in working with families to address these issues.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the events participants will be able to;

- Recognise early signs and indicators of neglect and emotional abuse use and take action accordingly
- Understand how the importance of observation can contribute to an effective assessment of attachment and resilience in childhood to practice
- Feel more confident in having difficult conversations with caregivers about the impact of behaviour(s) on child/ren and what needs to change
- Understand their responsibilities in confronting neglect and emotional abuse in order to achieve better outcomes for children
- Understand the importance of resilience factors in assessing levels of need

Who is it for? - These events are open to practitioners who work with children, young people, adults or families, including from adult services. Please do not apply if you have completed previous NSCB or NCSCB Neglect or Emotional Abuse courses or have not attended an Introduction to Safeguarding Children course.

Other information - Events will start at 9.30am and finish at 3.30pm (refreshments available from 9.00am). Please note that lunch time food and refreshments will not be provided and delegates should bring provision with them (a limited choice of food will be available at South Forest to purchase).
